Hello From the Executive Director

What do you think of when you hear it's time for Halloween? Since this is the October article, I thought about the role of candy in childhood memories across generations. When I was a child, one of our neighbors always gave out large Mars Bars to all the kids. Many childhood memories revolve around the tradition of receiving a specific type of candy, often passed down through generations. I think we all have that one type of favorite candy.

It is not just about the candy itself, but the continuity of family love and bonding. Sharing a piece of candy brings the sweetness of nostalgia.

During our Halloween Carnival this year when you reach for that favorite candy, just maybe for a moment, it will bring you back to simpler, care-free times. (The Internet) Happy Halloween from Harbison Shores,

Employees of the Month

We are so happy to have Shakeema and Tenissa, our two concierges, as our employees of the month. They always have sweet personalities, they are very helpful, and they help keep this community as stable and healthy as it is. We hear nothing but good things about Shakeema and Tenissa, and we are proud to have them at Harbison Shores.
